

Deposit contract FORS

1. The institution depositing the data, "INSTITUTION"

Represented by "RESEARCHER"

- a) maintains the copyright on the data in point 2 as well as on the corresponding documentation,
- b) has collected and treated the data in conformity with existing laws on data protection,
- c) confirms that the data have been anonymised, and
- d) deposits them at FORS, Géopolis, 1015 Lausanne.

2. The data to be archived

Data and documentation from the project entitled "STUDY", under the direction of "RESEARCHER (PI)".

3. The goal of the archiving of the data

The deposit of the data and documentation at FORS has the aim of:

- a) their archiving at FORS,
- b) their reuse by third parties for the purpose of analysis.

4. Responsibilities of FORS

FORS agrees to:

- a) archive the data and the documentation in accordance with its possibilities and technical standards,
- b) make the data and documentation available to third parties for analytic purposes,
- c) inform data users of their contractual and legal obligations, which are notably:
 - to respect the Federal Act on Data Protection (FADP) of 19 June 1992, if they use individual data,
 - to cite completely the data source, the institution, and the researchers that produced the data,
 - to use the data and instruments only for their own analytical purposes. In particular, it is not permissible to transmit the data to third parties, whether in original or modified form, whether for reward or free of charge.

FORS is however not responsible for possible violations of these terms by data users.

5. Rights of FORS

- a) FORS has the right to publish information on the data and the corresponding research project in order to inform about the archived data and to promote their reuse,
- b) FORS has the right to provide to third parties, for analytic purposes, copies of the archived data and the corresponding documentation,
- c) FORS has the right to use the archived data for analytic and to publish results.

6. Rights of the institutions that deposits the data

- a) The institution has the right to be informed about any reuse of the data by third parties.